

Call for Artists

Set up your easel and capture a beautiful glimpse of Capitola-by-the-Sea: iconic pastel beach houses, wooded creek, historic Stockton Bridge and railroad trestle, stunning seascapes, rocky sheer cliffs or Victorian homes!

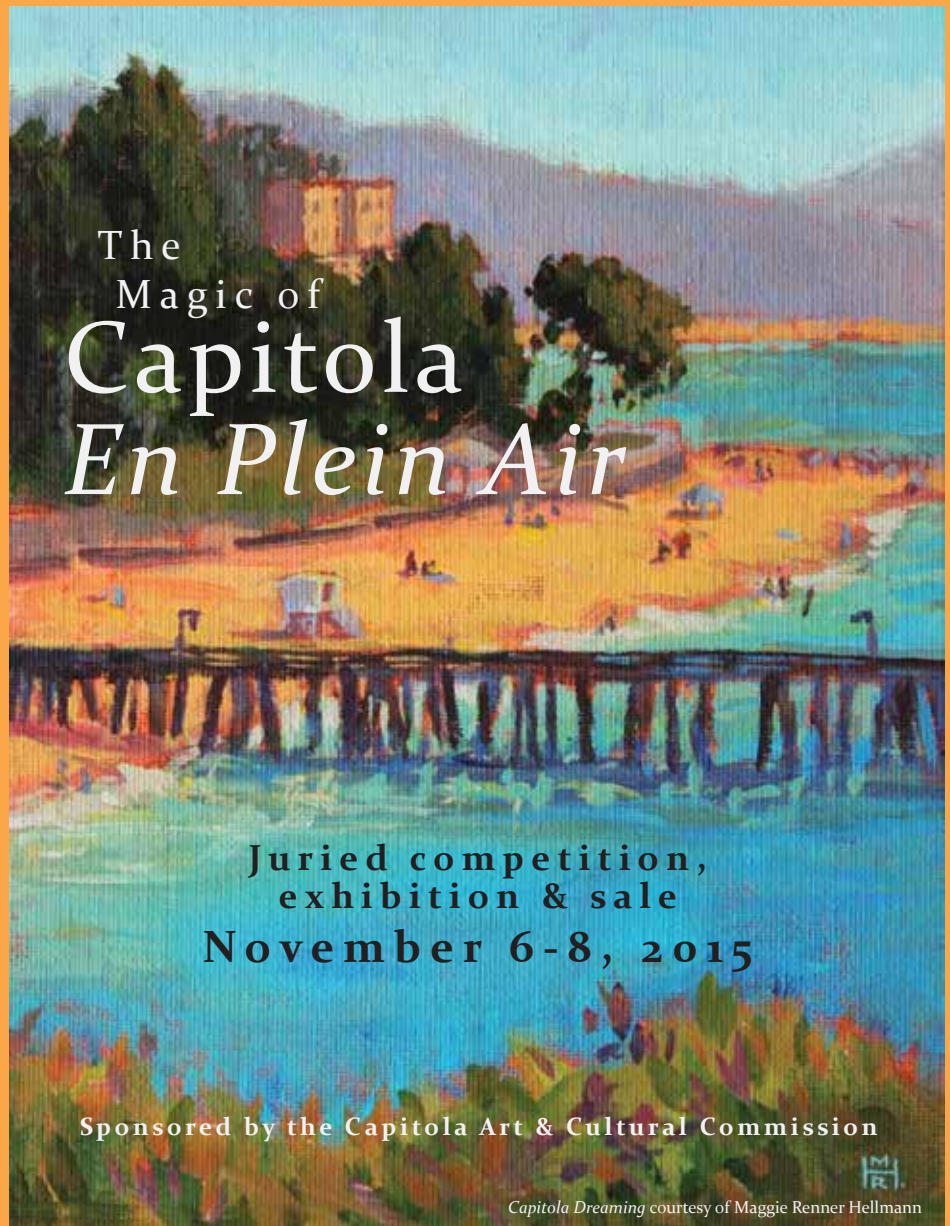

Professional Division

The winning entry will be purchased for $1,500, added to the City's public art collection, and may be featured as logo for the 2016 event.

Second place painting will be purchased for $750, and added to the City's public art collection.

Amateur Division

First Place $100 cash prize

The Magic of Capitola En Plein Air

Juried competition, exhibition & sale
November 6-8, 2015

Sponsored by the Capitola Art & Cultural Commission

Capitola Dreaming courtesy of Maggie Renner Hellmann

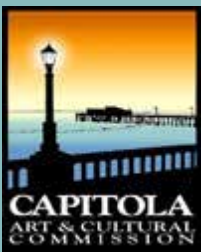

Registration & painting - Friday, Saturday, and Sunday beginning at 8:30 am*

Exhibition, judging, awards & sales - Sunday 2-5 pm at Esplanade Park in Capitola Village

Susan Hillhouse Leask presents:

"A Brief History of En Plein Air Painting & How I Judge a Painting In Open Air" - Sunday 1 pm

Sponsored by the Capitola Art & Cultural Commission

For complete rules and registration information, go to capitolapleinair.com

*Artists may have their canvas stamped as early as 8:30 a.m. on Friday, November 6. All pieces entered in the professional division competition must be completed and framed by noon on Sunday. Amateur division entries may be unframed.
Professional artists may sell their works, commission-free, at their painting site on Saturday, and at the 2'x6' wall provided for them at Esplanade Park on Sunday.